PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

KAREN FRY-WEISBRICH
President of the Board of Trustees

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I want to welcome you to Rocky Mountain Repertory Theatre. We are thrilled to have you here to see our exciting 2024 season and enjoy the magic of live musical theatre performed by our exceptional company.

It is a great honor to be the President of the Board of Trustees; it is a service that I do not take lightly. As a young girl, I had the privilege of attending when the theatre first came to Grand Lake and Grand County, and I have continued attending ever since. I hold these experiences and the history of RMRT dear to my heart, so please know that my goal will always include reflecting on the past, focusing on the present, and looking to the future of RMRT. I am thankful for this opportunity.

It is important that I recognize our team of volunteers who join forces to contribute their combined skills and talents. In 2023, our group of 180-plus active volunteers gave over 3,328 hours dedicated to the theatre. At the front of the house, we had greeters, ushers, gift shop attendants, and bartenders. Volunteer attention was given to our facilities, including our buildings and landscaping. A very large volunteer group assembled to contribute their talents to our annual fundraiser, Cabaret.

In December, volunteers gathered to decorate the lobby and trees for a festive celebration of our holiday shows. Along the way, lifelong friendships are forged as people come together to give freely of their time. If you want to join the rewarding and fun volunteer corps, please contact the administrative office.

Additionally, I also want to give a very heartfelt thank you to our many donors who keep our theatre in a healthy financial shape. In the last few years, we have focused on Raise the Roof, our capital campaign for safe, modern, and comfortable company housing. We are thrilled that the housing was completed in 2023, but our fundraising efforts continue in order to pay off the remaining loan. If you are able to help us with a financial contribution, please speak to a board or staff member, or simply call our office. Credit card 'Dipjars' are also available in the gallery for your convenience. We sincerely appreciate donations of any amount to help us reach our goal, and all donations are tax deductible.

Thank you for coming! And now, sit back and enjoy the show!

- Karen Fry-Weisbrich

WELCOME TO ROCKY MOUNTAIN REP.

MICHAEL QUERIO
Executive Artistic Director

Welcome to Rocky Mountain Rep! We're so glad you're here, and we sincerely hope that you have a great time tonight, and all season long.

There are a number of Golden Age musicals that will take the stage repeatedly at a summer rep theatre like ours over the years. Take a quick glance at our Production History found on page 14 of this playbill. How many times has Fiddler On The Roof appeared in our 57 year history? Or Guys & Dolls? Or The Sound of Music? This season we're continuing that tradition, bringing back one of the most classic of all the classics—The Music Man. RMRT last presented this show in 1997. It was supposed to be revived in our cancelled 2020 season, and we're proud to stage it now this summer. I had the pleasure of being the Music Director and Pianist for that production back in 1997, and I'm still in contact with many of the performers from that production—including the "Harold Hill", who is now the Artistic Director of a renowned summer theatre in the heart of Missouri. Our audiences love to see these well-known musicals. Like a Beethoven symphony or an Agatha Christie whodunnit, these pieces stand the test of time, and truly become classics.

At the same time, I feel like my calling as an Artistic Director is not just to give our patrons a steady diet of the shows they know and love, but also to introduce new and tasty theatre morsels that I think you will love, too, once you get to know them. It might be my favorite part of the job, digging up new and amazing shows, and finding a way to add them to our season. Remember Hands On A Hardbody back in 2014? Or A Gentleman's Guide To Love And Murder from 2018? What about Desperate Measures two years ago? Nearly no one in our theatre family had heard of these shows—on either side of the stage—but everyone came to love them by the time the season ended. I'm thrilled that this season we get to introduce two new shows to you—Kinky Boots, also from our cancelled 2020 season, and the newest show of our season and one of the most important, profound musicals that I've seen in recent years, Come From Away. And with the beautiful music of the amazing singer that we recently lost—Tony Bennett—to round out our Fall Season, we're proud of this 4-show blockbuster season ahead of us.

Some of you love the classics, some of you love the new shows, but the one thing we all have in common is our love for this little theatre in the mountains. We promise to bring you a full season of great performances, and we hope you'll keep coming back year after year. If you see me standing in the lobby, come over and let me know what you think. Above all, we thank you for putting your trust in us. Thank you for coming tonight.

- Michael Querio

Director's Note

Welcome to Kinky Boots, a musical that celebrates the transformative power of acceptance and the unbreakable bond between fathers and sons. At its core, this show is a joyful and colorful journey of two individuals coming together, overcoming their differences, and learning to appreciate each other's strengths. Through the heartwarming story of Charlie and Lola, Kinky Boots reminds us of the importance of empathy, understanding, and working together to achieve a common goal. It's a testament to the idea that when we embrace our differences and stand united, we can create something truly extraordinary. So join us as we dance, sing, and cheer for a world where love, acceptance, and the celebration of individuality reign supreme. Let Kinky Boots inspire you to step into your own uniqueness and walk proudly in your own fabulous shoes. Enjoy the show, and remember: You are perfect just the way you are – but it never hurts to add some boots with heels to your wardrobe – just for kicks!

Director's Note

What a joy to be marching into Grand Lake with The Music Man! The Music Man was truly a soundtrack from my own childhood. My sister used to sing "Til there was You" ad nauseam, my dad's rendition of "Trouble" can rival Robert Preston and my daughter, at age 3, singing "My White Knight" is a core memory.

Tonight, we invite you to 1912 River City which was inspired by Meredith Willson's own hometown of Mason City, Iowa; both of which, I can imagine, were much like our precious Grand Lake.

One thing to enjoy about The Music Man are the citizens of River City. At start, they may seem simple and cold but the changes they all make are so complex, fun and wonderfully honest. Our characters go from absurd to rational, stoic to dramatic, immature to mature, enemy to ally, and finally, a con man to an honest man, all before curtain. Harold Hill getting off at that train depot with a con man's tale brought a small spark of hope and life to the town that changed them ALL for the better.

On that 'note', I would be remiss if I didn't mention how this show revolves around music: music teachers, playing instruments, teaching piano, teaching harmony, singing together. Every performer and musician you see on this stage is there because of the music teachers in their lives. I dedicate this show to my favorite music teacher, my mom, who has taught music for over 50 years.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Set in the aftermath of the tragic events of September 11, 2001, this remarkable true story of human kindness in the face of adversity takes us on a journey of hope, resilience, and the power of community. At its heart, Come From Away is a testament to the beauty of strangers when people from all walks of life come together. It celebrates the generosity of spirit that emerges when we set aside our differences and unite as one. The story takes place in the small town of Gander, Newfoundland, where the locals band together in a remarkable way to show incredible strength and compassion to the weary, displaced travelers of 9/11. In a world often divided, Come From Away serves as a beacon of light, reminding us of the importance of coming together and embracing our shared humanity. We feel so privileged to be one of the first professional regional theatres across the country to bring this seven-time Tony nominated musical to our patrons. So sit back, immerse yourself in the music and the stories, and let Come From Away inspire you to look beyond borders and see the beauty in connection and kindness. Enjoy the show, and may it renew your faith in the goodness of people!

-Jeff Duke

A TRUE STORY

To create Come From Away, writers Irene Sankoff and David Hein collected hundreds of hours of interviews with the locals in Newfoundland, as well as the passengers who were stranded there during that fateful week. These stories inspired the show you're about to experience tonight, distilled into 100 minutes, and performed by a cast of 12 representing nearly 16,000 people.

Come From Away is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI).

DIRECTORS' NOTE

Fall in the mountains always seems to be the perfect time to celebrate an American icon in the world of music. Whether the music and life stories are from John Denver, Patsy Cline, or Elvis, Johnny, Carl and Jerry Lee, they just seem like a perfect fit for this beautiful time of year. This year, it felt natural for us to celebrate the legacy and talent of Tony Bennett, whom we lost in 2023. As we gather to celebrate the life and music of this incomparable man with such style, we are reminded of the timeless elegance and unparalleled talent that defined his legendary career. We drummed up a plethora of his old albums and enjoyed a cocktail while preparing ourselves to bring this show to the RMRT stage! What a joy! May his influence continue to inspire us all as we pay tribute to his impeccable artistry. Enjoy the show!
